Douglas vs. Douglas and the Missouri Compromise.

From Douglas' Speech in Springfield, Ill., 1850.

The Missouri Compromise had its origin in the hearts of all patriotic men who desired to preserve the peace and the unity of our glorious Union—on origin which should have been the basis of all our political action.

It was the result of a compromise between the North and the South, a compromise which was the only one which could have saved the Union from the ruin which threatened it.

It was a compromise which was the only one which could have saved the Union from the ruin which threatened it.

A great union mass meeting was held at Brooklyn last eve.

TROY, Oct. 10.

The largest fire that has visited this city since the great conflagration of 1854, occurred this forenoon, about 8 o'clock.

An immense factory on the India Hill was entirely destroyed. The building was owned by Andrew McLean, Marshall, and occupied by Andrew McLean, F. W. Farham and Wm. Cochran in manufacturing machinery and quite recently. Amount of loss $20,000 on the building, which is insured for $14,000. Loss of the occupants about $60,000—$40,000. The fire caught accidentally in the packing room. It throws two hundred hands out of employment. A high wind was blowing and the destruction would have been large had it not been for the steam fire engines.

Terrible Accident.—We are deeply pained to record a horrible accident which happened at the flouring mill of Messrs. Wells & Hill, about 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, by which Mrs. Hill, wife of I. M. Hill, lost her life. As we learn the circumstances of the sad affair, they are these: Mrs. Hill was passing by an upright shaft, which was revolving rapidly, situated in the second story of the building, when the wind blew her dress against it, hitting her entangled and carried her around, beating her head against a partition, and some upright posts standing near Mr. Wells, who was near by, hearing her screams, ran to her assistance, and endeavored to tear her dress loose from the shaft, but was unable to accomplish it. He was carried around a number of times and thrown down and considerably injured. Mrs. Hill was killed almost instantly, her head being shockingly mangled. She was a well beloved and esteemed by a large circle of acquaintances, who will deeply mourn her sudden decease, and sympathize with her afflicted relatives in their great and irreparable loss.—Racine Daily Journal, October 8th.

Douglas vs. Douglas and the Missouri Compromise.

From Douglas' Speech in Springfield, Ill., 1850.

The Missouri Compromise had its origin in the hearts of all patriotic men who desired to preserve the peace and the blessings of our glorious Union on original basis to that of the constitution of the United States, and to that of the people of the United States.

From Douglas' Speech in Springfield, Ill., 1850.

This is part of the history of the country that you delight to call equal rights, and the people of New England have introduced and protected slavery in the whole of that territory. Under this doctrine they have converted a tract of free territory into slave territory, and then they have introduced slavery into the whole of that territory.

From Douglas' Speech in Springfield, Ill., 1850.

Under this doctrine slavery has been extended from the Rio Grande to the Gulf of California, and from the line of the Republic of Mexico, not only up to 36 degrees 30 minutes, but up to 39 degrees, giving you a degree and a half more slave territory than you ever claimed.

Arrest of Booth.

The news of the arrest of Booth is universally received with a remarkable feeling of quietness, amounting in most cases to indifference. When the fact was announced in Milwaukee it excited scarcely more comment than the ordinary daily telegraphic despatcher. The cause for this feeling is truthfully and plainly stated by the Free Democrat:

"He has been re-taken (says that paper) through an utter disregard of the advice of his best friends, and that he should withdraw from the state, and through an utter disregard of precautionary measures for his own safety while in this state. If therefore the re-arrest is to be regretted, it must be considered that Mr. Booth by his disregard of the advice of friends, and all measures for safety, has relieved republicans who have sympathized with him from any responsibility in the matter. His indiscretion has challenged a re-arrest all the time, and he is now reaping the fruit of his own folly."

The law under which Mr. Booth is imprisoned is so less odious to the people of the state now than when its penalty was first inflicted upon him, and with all his faults, folly and crime, there is now no wish to see him suffer under a law revolting to every instinct of freedom, and where every moment of imprisonment or every act of confinement is an outrage upon humanity; but of notwithstanding this feeling, it is undeniable that he has utterly destroyed every sentiment like sympathy for him by the foolhardy course he has pursued since his escape and his refusal to relieve his friends by leaving the state and seeking a place of refuge where even his enemies had no disposition to molest him.

The annual cost of clothing in the United States, is estimated at one thousand millions of dollars, one-tenth of which amount is manufactured in the city of Janesville alone.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

A Celebration To-Night.

We suppose, from what we have heard, that the republicans of the city, in connection with the Wide-Awakes, contemplate a celebration of the brilliant victories in Ohio, Pennsylvania and Indiana, though we have not been furnished with any of the arrangements. Our friends will do well to be around, if anything takes place, and take a hand in. Perhaps it will be decided to make the celebration to-night preliminary to a better demonstration to-morrow night, after Mr. Douglas has entertained his friends.

OUR ILLUMINATIONS.—The Gazette office was brilliantly illuminated last evening in honor of the glorious victories in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana. Some of our democratic friends, who see nothing "definite" in the results of these elections, compliment us by ascribing the illumination to the visit of George B. Smith of Madison, who addressed a handful of democrats in the court room. We must decline the compliment; George, to be sure, is an old friend of one of the editors of the Gazette and a former resident of the same state with the other; but he is entirely too small a light to be honored with any such demonstration as that with which we greeted the stirring news from the three states which sealed last Tuesday the fate of the presidential election.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—We hear that a brakeman on a freight train of the Chicago and Northwestern railway was killed last night by falling from the car under the train. The particulars we have not ascertained.

THE MAN WHO WORKED.—The venerable Henry C. Carey and the eloquent David P. Brown were in the great republican procession in Philadelphia, carrying torches, on Wednesday night of last week. They marched eight miles. Many of the wealthiest and most respectable merchants were also bearing torches.

When such men engage in work so earnestly, what wonder that a glorious victory rewards their efforts?

JOHN P. HALE IN ILLINOIS.—John P. Hale has six appointments in Illinois:—Junction, DuPage Co., Oct. 23; Lane, Ogle Co., Oct. 24; Sterling, Whiteside Co., Oct. 25; Marengo, McHenry Co., Oct. 26; Warren, Jo Davies Co., Oct. 27; Mendota, LaSalle Co., Oct. 29; Chicago, Oct. 30.

We learn that the "Lincoln boys" at Beloit had a good time when the news was received from the state elections, yesterday. Wadsworth read the returns publicly and the jolly republicans cheered till their throats were hoarse.

The stand for Douglas to speak upon in this city, we learn, will not be erected "until they know how the wind is going to blow." The breezes from Pennsylvania and Indiana are not very agreeable. Zephyrs from the south would be more consoling.

Insurance.—Having resigned the agency of the Home Insurance Company of New York, in favor of Mr. E. L. Dimock, I cordially recommend him to my friends and the patrons of this soundest of sound insurance companies, when in want of insurance.

J. H. VERMILYE.—It will be seen by the above card that E. L. Dimock has added to his already splendid line of insurance companies the well-known Home of New York city, having cash assets amounting to $1,500,000.00. Mr. D. has also been appointed agent for one of the solid companies of Old England, viz: The Northern Fire Insurance Company of London, England, with a cash capital of $5,298,000.00. With these additions, the cash capital and surplus of the companies represented by him, amount to the enormous sum of ten millions two hundred and forty-eight thousand dollars. The advertisement for this company will appear to-morrow.

Douglas' Visit.—Mr. Douglas is expected in this city to-morrow. The programme as announced by the democratic state committee is for him to speak in Foul du Lac after speaking here, and then proceed to Milwaukee. We have not learned the time by his arrival here or the arrangements made for him, or we would announce them.

A CHANGE!—The elections in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana have produced a change in our neighbors of the Democrat. They have dropped for the time being the publication of their forgeries and resorted to the harmless amusement of political prophecy. It finds nothing "definite" in the returns from Indiana, Ohio, and Pennsylvania. The result, whatever it may be, is attributed only to the local issues involved, and not to any sure test in relation to the presidency. It predicts that "a few weeks hence," the Gazette will be "obliged to put down Douglas good for 25,000 majority in Indiana, and Pennsylvania 50,000 for Douglas, seconded by New York with her 100,000, and Illinois with 10,000 to 15,000 majority, followed by Connecticut, Rhode Island, Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Oregon, California, and probably Ohio."

Such a faith is eminently worthy of the renowned Macawber. The Democrat also objects to the portrait of Lincoln which illustrated our returns, and does not think it good looking. "Handsomeness is that handsome does;" but whether good or ill-looking, the democracy are bound to take our candidate just as he is; there is nothing surer. Put that in your pipe and smoke it at your leisure.

The New York Tribune says: "Our market is overstocked with apples beyond all precedent, and the 'oldest inhabitant' declares that he never saw the like. Considering the excellent quality of much of the fruit offered, it is really wonderful. At the present time, choice apples, from Western New York, will scarcely sell for enough to cover cost of barrel, freight and commission."

The graves of those who fell in the Crimean war occupy twenty square miles of territory.

ATTENTION

Wide Awake!

You have all heard from Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana. Let every member be on hand at 7 1/2 o'clock this evening, with torch and full uniform, for a good time.

The Republican Ball.

BY ANDREW DOWDING.
Air—"Route the Bow."
The Eagle of victory perches
E'en now on our standard's proud crest;
Of all the political churches
Oh! here is the freest and the best.

The manne from battle to battle;
His portals are open to all—
'Twas built by the hands of the people
Who roll the Republican Ball.

Our creed is—"All men are born equal,
And all have the God given right
To liberty, life," and the sequel
Will show that the doctrine gives might,
And union and zeal to the yeoman
Who rally at liberty's call.

For on through, the ranks of the Union
They roll the Republican Ball.
And bravely the work goes on—
The work of the people's proud crest;
The eyes of the people look on—
A golden bright future they see!

A day when the despots and spoliators
In shame and confusion shall fall
Beneath the strong arms of the tollman
Who roll the Republican Ball.

Steve Douglas, a free trader,
His followers feeble and few;
They'll have need of a "glint" far greater
Before the fierce contest is through.
The "breakin' bridge" soon will be broken,
The "Ev'ry Bell" muffle its call;

Of these will be left scarce a token
Where rolls the Republican Ball.
The man we have chosen is Abe-Lin,
He'll right the old state ship again,
And clean out the Augean stable
Where Fraud and Corruption have lain.

Hurrah! freedom, then, for our leader!
Hurrah! for our candidates all!
Still on, spite of fumes and sneezers,
We'll roll the Republican Ball.
Wyand, Ill., Sept. 1860.

WHY DOUGLAS IS RUN.—Senator Chandler of Michigan, in his speech at Newberg, on Wednesday evening, told the following story apropos of the running of Douglas for president by one wing of the democratic party:

A friend of mine the other day was anxious to know why they persisted in running Douglas. Nobody claimed that they would elect him, and "what under heavens do they run him for?" said this friend of mine. Said I, "they claim that they are preparing him for some great race in the future—for the sweepstakes of 1864, when they think he will sweep the country." That reminds me of the story of an old Englishman who had a famous terrier puppy which he was training to hunt up the animal, and finally determined to exhibit his accomplishments, and called in his son, John for that purpose. Said he, "Now, John, I am going to get down on all fours and play ball, and then you will see what he will do." So down the old man got and began to belittle like a ball at the puppy, who forthwith sprang at him, seized him by the nose, and shook it violently, while John stood by clapping his hands and crying out the sport.

But the old man thought the dog was carrying the joke too far, for he could not shake him off. He stopped his bellowing and cried out, "take him off, John, take the beast off, or he will kill me." "Oh, never mind, dad," said John, "never mind, it will be the making of the pup." So of this running of Douglas; I dare say some good will come out of it, though I don't know what. [Laughter and applause.]

The last legislature of New York passed a law that no person having a husband, wife, child or parent shall, by will, give more than half his property to any "benevolent, charitable, literary, scientific, religious or missionary society, association or corporation, in trust or otherwise." Any gift of more than one-half is void as to the excess above one-half.

THE PAST AND PRESENT.—Baron Renfrew and suite visited Mount Vernon on Friday last, and the Baron stood unscathed before the tomb of the man who headed a successful revolution that defeated the best armies of his great-grandfather.

GREAT SECOND ARRIVAL OF

Spring and Summer Merchandise

AT THIS

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

A Celebration To-Night.

We suppose, from what we have heard, that the republicans of the city, in connection with the Wide-Awakes, contemplate a celebration of the brilliant victories in Ohio, Pennsylvania and Indiana, though we have not been furnished with any of the arrangements. Our friends will do well to be around, if anything takes place, and take a hand in. Perhaps it will be decided to make the celebration to-night preliminary to a better demonstration to-morrow night, after Mr. Douglas has entertained his friends.

OUR ILLUMINATION.—The Gazette office was brilliantly illuminated last evening in honor of the glorious victories in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana. Some of our democratic friends, who see nothing "definite" in the results of these elections, compliment us by ascribing the illumination to the visit of George B. Smith of Madison, who addressed a handful of democrats in the court room. We must decline the compliment; George, to be sure, is an old friend of one of the editors of the Gazette and a former resident of the same state with the other; but he is entirely too small a light to be honored with any such demonstration as that with which we greeted the stirring news from the three states which sealed last Tuesday the fate of the presidential election.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—We hear that a brakeman on a freight train of the Chicago and Northwestern railway was killed last night by falling from the car under the train. The particulars we have not ascertained.

THE MAX WHO WORKED.—The venerable Henry C. Carey and the eloquent David P. Brown were in the great republican procession in Philadelphia, carrying torches, on Wednesday night of last week. They marched eight miles. Many of the wealthiest and most respectable merchants were also bearing torches.

When such men engage in work so earnestly, what wonder that a glorious victory rewards their efforts?

JOHN P. HALE IN ILLINOIS.—John P. Hale has six appointments in Illinois:—Junction, DuPage Co., Oct. 23; Lane, Ogle Co., Oct. 24; Sterling, Whiteside Co., Oct. 25; Marengo, McHenry Co., Oct. 26; Warren, Jo Davies Co., Oct. 27; Mendota, LaSalle Co., Oct. 29; Chicago, Oct. 30.

WE LEARN THAT THE "LINCOLN BOYS" at Beloit, had a good time when the news was received from the state elections, yesterday. Wadsworth read the returns publicly and the jolly republicans cheered till their throats were hoarse.

THE STAND FOR DOUGLAS TO SPEAK UPON in this city, we learn, will not be erected "until they know how the wind is going to blow." The breezes from Pennsylvania and Indiana are not very agreeable. Zephyrs from the south would be more consoling.

Insurance.—Having resigned the agency of the Home Insurance Company of New York, in favor of Mr. E. L. Dimock, I cordially recommend him to my friends and the patrons of this soundest of sound insurance companies, when in want of insurance.

J. H. VERMILYE.

It will be seen by the above card that E. L. Dimock has added to his already splendid list of insurance companies the well-known Home of New York city, having cash assets amounting to $1,500,000.00. Mr. D. has also been appointed agent for one of the solid companies of Old England; viz: The Northern Fire Insurance Company of London, England, with a cash capital of $6,298,000.00. With these additions, the cash capital and surplus of the companies represented by him, amount to the enormous sum of ten millions two hundred and forty-eight thousand dollars. The advertisement for this company will appear to-morrow.

DOUGLAS VISIT.—Mr. Douglas is expected in this city to-morrow. The programme as announced by the democratic state committee is for him to speak in Fond du Lac after speaking here, and then proceed to Milwaukee. We have not learned the time by his arrival here or the arrangements made for him, or we would announce them.

A CHANGE!—The elections in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana have produced a change in our neighbors of the Democrat. They have dropped for the time being the publication of their forgeries and resorted to the harmless amusement of political prophecy. It finds nothing "definite" in the returns from Indiana, Ohio, and Pennsylvania. The result, whatever it may be, is attributed only to the local issues involved, and not to any sure test in relation to the presidency. It predicts that "a few weeks hence," the Gazette will be "obliged to put down Douglas good for 25,000 majority in Indiana, and Pennsylvania 50,000 for Douglas, seconded by New York with 100,000, and Illinois with 10,000 to 15,000 majority for the champion of the people, followed by Connecticut, Rhode Island, Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Oregon, California, and probably Ohio."

Such a faith is eminently worthy of the renowned Macabre.

The Democrat also objects to the portrait of Lincoln which illustrated our returns, and does not think it good looking. "Handsome is that handsome does," but whether good or ill-looking, the democracy are bound to take our candidate just as he is; there is nothing surer. Put that in your pipe and smoke it at your leisure.

The New York Tribune says: "Our market is overstocked with apples beyond all precedent, and the 'oldest inhabitant' declares that he never saw the like. Considering the excellent quality of much of the fruit offered, it is really wonderful. At the present time, choice apples, from Western New York, will scarcely sell for enough to cover cost of barrel, freight and commission."

The graves of those who fall in the Crimean war occupy twenty square miles of territory.

The Republican Ball.

BY ANDREW DOWNING.

At 7 1/2 o'clock this evening.

Oh! ours is the freest and the best.

'Tis massive from basis to steeples;

Its portals are open to all—

'Twas built by the hands of the people

Who roll the Republican Ball.

Our creed is—"All men are born equal,

And all have the God-given right

To liberty, life, and the sequel

Will show that the doctrine gives might,

And union and zeal to the yeoman

Who rally at Liberty's call,

For on through the ranks of the foe

They roll the Republican Ball.

And bravely the work goes on—

The work of the fearless and free;

The eyes of the people look onward—

A golden bright future they see;

A day when the despots and tyrants

In shame and confusion shall fall

Beneath the strong arms of the toilers

Who roll the Republican Ball.

Steve Douglas to freedom's a traitor,

His followers feeble and few;

They'll have need of a "right" far greater

Before the fierce contest is through.

The Breaker's bridge soon will be broken,

The Breaker's bridge soon will be broken,

Or these will be left as a token

Where roll the Republican Ball.

The man we have chosen is Abe-Li,

He'll right the old state ship again,

And clear out the Augean stable

Where Fraud and Corruption have laid.

Hurray! hurray, then, for our leader!

Hurray for our candidates all!

Still on, spite of knives and accusers,

We'll roll the Republican Ball.

That reminds me of the story of an old Englishman who had a famous terrier puppy which he was training. He had spent a great deal of time and labor upon the animal, and finally determined to exhibit his accomplishments, and called in his son John for that purpose. Said he, "Now, John, I am going to get down on all fours and play ball, and then you will see what he will do." So down the old man got and began to bow like a bull at the puppy, who forthwith sprang at him, seized him by the nose, and shook it violently, while John stood by clapping his hands and enjoying the sport.

But the old man caught the dog was carrying the joke too far, for he could not shake him off. He stopped his bellowing and cried out, "take him off, John, take the beast off, or he will kill me." "Oh, never mind, dad," said John, "never mind, it will be the making of the pup." So of this running of Douglas; I dare say some good will come out of it, though I don't know what. (Laughter and applause.)

The last legislature of New York passed a law that no person having a husband, wife, child or parent shall, by will, give more than half his property to any "benevolent, charitable, literary, scientific, religious or missionary society, association or corporation, in trust or otherwise." Any gift of more than one-half is void as to the excess above one-half.

THE PAST AND PRESENT.—Baron Renfrew and suite visited Mount Vernon on Friday last, and the Baron stood uncovered before the tomb of the man who headed a successful revolution that defeated the best armies of his great-grandfather.

COMMERCIAL.

Janesville Wholesale Market.

Reported for the Janesville Gazette, by

BUMP & GRAY,

GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, October 11, 1860.

There was a large falling of receipts of wheat to-day from yesterday, only about 4000 bushels on the market. Prices, however, under more favorable advices from the lake shore, eastern and foreign markets, were again and again better, ranging at $2.30/25c for milling spring and $2.00/25c for shipping—closing firm at full figures. Receipts of other grains light and prices unchanged.

We make up prices as follows:

WHEAT—white winter $2.40/25c; good to choice mill spring $2.30/25c; common to fair $2.20/25c.

COAL—No. 1 delivered at $2.00/25c per 100 lbs. New in car 15c/25c per 100 lbs.

OATS—good local and some shipping demand at 10c/25c per bushel.

RYE—in fair request at $1.75/25c per 100 lbs.

TIMOTHY SEED—in good demand at 1.05/1.50 per 40 lbs.

BARLEY—ranging at $1.50/25c per 50 lbs. for good samples, and $1.00/25c for common.

POTATOES—plenty at 20c/25c per bushel.

BUTTER—wanted at 13c/15c fair to choice roll and jar.

BEGGS—in request at 5c/6c per dozen.

HIDES—Green, 5 to 6; Dry, 10 to 12.

Wool—spring at 2.00, per 100 lbs.

POULTRY—dressed turkeys, 7c; chickens, 6c; live chickens 12c/15c each.

WOOL—4th best quality per pound for common to best clips, with but very little coming forward.

The Republican Ball.

BY ANDREW DOWNING.

At 7 1/2 o'clock this evening.

Oh! ours is the freest and the best.

'Tis massive from basis to steeples;

Its portals are open to all—

'Twas built by the hands of the people

Who roll the Republican Ball.

Our creed is—"All men are born equal,

And all have the God-given right

To liberty, life, and the sequel

Will show that the doctrine gives might,

And union and zeal to the yeoman

Who rally at Liberty's call,

For on through the ranks of the foe

They roll the Republican Ball.

And bravely the work goes on—

The work of the fearless and free;

The eyes of the people look onward—

A golden bright future they see;

A day when the despots and tyrants

In shame and confusion shall fall

Beneath the strong arms of the toilers

Who roll the Republican Ball.

Steve Douglas to freedom's a traitor,

His followers feeble and few;

They'll have need of a "right" far greater

Before the fierce contest is through.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

A Celebration To-Night.

We suppose from what we have heard, that the republicans of the city, in connection with the Wide-Awakes, contemplate a celebration of the brilliant victory in Ohio, Pennsylvania and Indiana, though we have not been furnished with any of the arrangements. Our friends will do well to be around, if anything takes place, and take a hand in it. Perhaps it will be decided to make the celebration to-night preliminary to a better demonstration to-morrow night, after Mr. Douglas has entertained his friends.

OUR ILLUMINATION.—The Gazette office was brilliantly illuminated last evening in honor of the glorious victories in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana. Some of our democratic friends, who see nothing of "definite" in the results of these elections, to the visit of George H. Smith of Madison, who addressed a handful of democrats in the court room. We must decline the compliment; George, to be sure, is an old friend of one of the editors of the Gazette and a former resident of the same state with the other; but he is entirely too small a light to be honored with any such demonstration as that with which we greeted the stirring news from the three states which sealed last Tuesday the fate of the presidential election.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—We hear that a brakeman on a freight train of the Chicago and Northwestern railway was killed last night by falling from the car under the train. The particulars we have not ascertained.

THE MAN WHO WORKED.—The venerable Henry C. Carey and the eloquent David P. Brown were in the great republican procession in Philadelphia, carrying torches, on Wednesday night of last week. They marched eight miles. Many of the wealthiest and most respectable merchants were also bearing torches.

When such men engage in work so earnestly, who wonder that a glorious victory rewards their efforts?

JOHN P. HALE IN ILLINOIS.—John P. Hale has six appointments in Illinois.—Junction, Dupage Co., Oct. 23; Lane, Ogle Co., Oct. 24; Sterling, Whiteside Co., Oct. 25; Marengo, McHenry Co., Oct. 26; Warren, Jo Davies Co., Oct. 27; Mendota, LaSalle Co., Oct. 29; Chicago, Oct. 30.

We learn that the "Lincoln boys" at Beloit had a good time when the news was received from the state elections, yesterday. Wadsworth read the returns publicly and the jolly republicans cheered till their throats were hoarse.

The stand for Douglas to speak upon in this city, we learn, will not be erected "until they know how the wind is going to blow." The breeze from Pennsylvania and Indiana are not very agreeable. Zephyrs from the south would be more consoling.

Insurance.

Having resigned the agency of the Home Insurance Company of New York, in favor of Mr. E. L. Dimock, I cordially recommend him to my friends and the patrons of this soundest of sound insurance companies, when in want of insurance.

J. H. VERMILYE.

It will be seen by the above card that E. L. Dimock has added to his already splendid list of insurance companies the well-known Home of New York city, having cash assets amounting to $1,500,000.—Mr. D. has also been appointed agent for one of the solid companies of Old England, viz: The Northern Fire Insurance Company of London, England, with a cash capital of $6,298,000. With these additions, the cash capital and surplus of the companies represented by him, amount to the enormous sum of ten millions two hundred and forty-eight thousand dollars. The advertisement for this company will appear to-morrow.

ocillid

DOUGLAS'S VISIT.—Mr. Douglas is expected in this city to-morrow. The programme as announced by the democratic state committee is for him to speak in Fond du Lac after speaking here, and then proceed to Milwaukee. We have not learned the time by his arrival here or the arrangements made for him, or we would announce them.

A CHANGE.—The elections in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana have produced a change in our neighbors of the Democrat. They have dropped for the time being the publication of their forgeries and resorted to the harmless amusement of political prophecy. It finds nothing "definite" in the returns from Indiana, Ohio, and Pennsylvania. The result, whatever it may be, is attributed only to the local issues involved, and not to any sure test in relation to the presidency. It predicts that "a few weeks hence" the Gazette will be "obliged to put down Douglas good for 25,000 majority in Indiana, and Pennsylvania 50,000 for Douglas, seconded by New York with 100,000, and Illinois with 10,000 to 15,000 majority for the champion of the people, followed by Connecticut, Rhode Island, Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Oregon, California, and probably Ohio."

Such a faith is eminently worthy of the renowned Macabwer.

The Democrat also objects to the portrait of Lincoln which illustrated our returns, and does not think it good looking. "Handsome or ill-looking, the democracy are bound to take our candidate just as he is; there is nothing sorer. Put that in your pipe and smoke it at your leisure."

The New York Tribune says: "Our market is overstocked with apples beyond all precedent, and the 'oldest inhabitant' declares that he never saw the like. Considering the excellent quality of much of the fruit offered, it is really wonderful. At the present time, it is especially wonderful. From Western New York, will scarcely sell for enough to cover cost of barrel, and for consumption."

The graves of those who fell in the Crimean war occupy twenty square miles of territory.
